

Regarding higher education programmes offered by Macao higher education institutions in other regions

1. The current Decree law No. 11/91/M of 4 February regulating higher education activities only restricts those higher education programmes offered and run by local higher education institutions in Macao. For programmes held in other regions, local higher education institutions are not required to apply to the Macao SAR Government and the relevant programmes do not belong to the courses approved and recognised by the Macao SAR government.
2. The programmes offered by Macao education institutions in other regions are regulated by the laws and controlled by the relevant official departments of those regions.

* According to the provisions of Administrative Regulation No. 26/2003 of August 2003, the authority of examining the higher education qualification of the employee/appointees belongs to the relevant board of examiners, public departments and public entities who recruit, appoint or suggest appointing the employee/appointees.
